Introduction

The only way I overcame debt was through a 31-year process of continuous financial hardships. I had to overcome it in my mind before a plan could be devised to overcome it. And although I see the big picture now in 2021, I still have debt that must be paid off. I didn't learn the lesson until I was redeemed by Jesus Christ. God stabilized my circumstances and allowed me to focus on hearing him. There were so many distractions in my life for the past 31 years, I could not hear the promises of God. God had to send me through processes because I had rebelled against his ways when I was a teenager. I rebelled out of ignorance to his word, and I experienced an adverse destructive process. As God restores my finances, there are still more processes to experience. He must bring me out of the system to take me into his promise. I am using all the skills, training, education, and lessons learned from 31-years to implement that plan God needs for me to receive his blessings. My 31-years of experience have turned into manna, resources, and the ability to create what God is requiring. God said in his word that he will give me the ability to produce wealth (Deut. 8:18). It is the platform needed for me to build from a solid foundation of God's word. As I have detailed my financial challenges in my book, "My Faith in the Cross through Salvation...", this is the overcoming process of leveling the Mountain of Finance.

1. I prayed about my finances and trust God's timing
2. I repented and turn from destructive financial patterns
3. The spirit of God led me to start focusing on my finances
4. Write down current debts, expenses, financial obligations to see the big picture
5. Pull free Credit Report
6. Organize all accounts into a personal spreadsheet
7. Dispute information if needed
8. If able, start planning to pay some of the debt off

Chapter 1 - Manna is Resources

Manna was food for the children of Israel, but today manna is his word that guides me into alignment with his will. Manna can be anything that is a resource. We may be in different times, but we serve the same God that led Israel out of bondage. God provides manna as a resource that gave me the ability to exercise my gifts to produce fruit (wealth) for the Kingdom of God and my life. This is a lifestyle. Joseph's manna was his character, skills, and ability which is what led him to the top leadership position. God taught me how to turn my gifts into the force and ability that keeps producing. I was faithful in gaining knowledge about my health and being a great leader in everything in my life, especially on the job.

God provides a job as a human resource that gave me the money (finances), skills to manage my talent, and education to work in the world. In this world, I had to manage my debt to keep a report card of how I behaved with credit. The credit report did not come knowledgeable to me until I had made many mistakes, but I also learned from the system and how it works whether I had no credit history, some credit history, or bad credit history. This system is based on keeping the economy moving and not on how I feel about the system. It will remain a system whether I like it or not. So the steps I took to get started:

1. Pull credit reports from Experian, Transunion, and Equifax
2. Analyze everything on the report
3. Build a spreadsheet that helps you analyze each item. If you need a spreadsheet like how I made my own, email me at change@bevolutionllc.org and I will send you the template that I created.
4. Itemize your information as a snowball effect
5. Contact individual organizations to make arrangements after you know how much you can contribute.

Chapter 2 – Consumer Slave

I was a consumer slave to money because I didn't understand its nature and how to use it as a resource and tool to build the future God wanted for my life. I ate money like it was food with nothing to show for it, but an unhealthy body. After my experience for the past 31 years, I now see money as a resource for my needs to live. In the future, I see it as a tool to build and construct what God needs for me to advance the Kingdom of God. I couldn't advance in the Kingdom if I didn't know how to use money. The lessons I learned were invaluable. My life shifted so that I could get the following lessons:

Lesson #1 – Understand the nature of money in your circumstances

Lesson #2 - What are you capable of managing consistently, and do it unto the Lord

Lesson #3 – Assess every financial debt or obligations against God's Will. There has to be a one-to-one match.

The relationship with Christ has taught me so much that it is overflowing in my life. The overflow is in my spirit and it spills over into my writing. I never know how the spirit will speak to me, but he will speak suddenly, and I must catch what is being said. As I sat in the house on 11/23/2019 with my mom, she received a bunch of collard greens that were overflowing from the box. I did not receive the revelation until 11/24/2019 when the spirit showed me that the blessings in my life will be overflowing in abundance like the collard greens coming out of the box. God also showed me that the overflow comes because I didn't place him in a box. I trusted him even when it looked like God was not working in my life. God began to show me the words SHELTER (Cave/Tent), FOOD (Garden, Manna), WATER (flood, rock), AIR (breath), and POWER (fire).

Chapter 3 – The Pyramid Effect

He was showing me how he has been providing for all my needs, but the cares of this world have overshadowed him. He began to have me write down all the current bills operating my home and categories each area so I could see the current economical pyramid I was being delivered from in America. I called it the Pyramid effect. Currently, I was living off my husband's income which was $ 2,222.00 per month after the family medical insurance $111.00; Dental insurance $24.00 and taxes were deducted. What God showed me from this image was his needs versus my wants. I placed the numbers under the category I have shown you. These are your basic needs. Your wants were created out of ignorance of who I am. Place all other items under its own category.

Level 7 – Basic Needs - What’s the total cost of basic needs? $1,610

Shelter	Food	Water	Air	Power
Rent Clothes	Nutrition	Sewer Bath/Wash Drinking	AC/Heat Phone	Lights Fuel

The other category totals $596

Court Order	Loans	Communication Devices	Debt
Child-Support	Student Loans Personal Loans	Cell-phone Internet Cable ADT	Medical Bills IRS Taxes Collections

Chapter 4 - 7 Level Upside Down Pyramid

What this caused me to do is to create an Economic pyramid starting at level 1 that followed my transition with my parents; single adult; married; divorced; single; 2nd marriage; basic needs. Through my husband, God was showing me what basic life looks like without added features or multiplication other than one child.

I was going through a financial elevation which had steps and processes like a systematic computer program. I couldn't skip steps of the program would crash.

7 LEVEL UPSIDE DOWN PYRAMID

Updated: 10/23/2021 1:49:49 AM

I created this pyramid to demonstrate that God was stripping me from everything I knew about finances. He was showing me what I needed to survive and live.

Level 7 - Living with Parents

I was bound to repeat these steps unless I broke the pattern. If my spending habits would have been taught in the home and not when I left the home, there would be many financial obligations that I would have never encountered.

Level 6 – Single Adult

In level 6, I was clueless about the repercussions of financial debt. I was blessed to get a townhome, and in that place, I received many credit cards. This open door to credit card offers sent to me from being a student in school. I was receiving many offers and I took them. Little did I know, the company I worked for would go bankrupt sending me into a spiral effect of debt that I couldn't afford.

Level 5- Married

Marriage saved me from the debt, yet it didn't fix the problem. I filed for bankruptcy to alleviate the problem from flowing into my marriage. My credit was able to be repaired to the point where I could get a new car and I was able to get my name on our new home. This was great, but little did I know all of that plus the $4,000 that my ex invested in me would be my financial downfall to divorce. The open door into my marriage was my financial debt.

Level 4 – Divorce

Divorce was a financial disaster. Everything I built for my credit was torn down because I couldn't afford life. So, slowly God released the car in 2016, the house in 2017

Level 3 – Single After Marriage

I struggled to pay any bills and that includes child support. I had been threatened so many times by letters that suspended my license until I entered the fatherhood program to get help. I was in a hard place.

Level 2 - 2nd Marriage

The struggle with finances didn't change, but my life was able to be stable. My health became stable. My relationship with my family grew. I was able to balance my emotions. Although I had difficult times in the marriage, it was for growth.

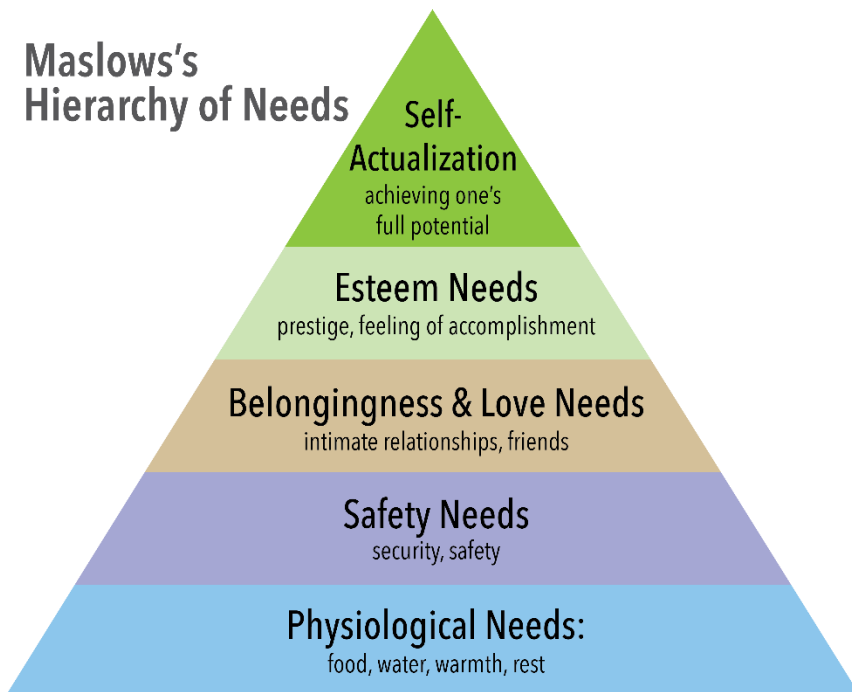

Level 1 – Basic Needs

As of October 22, 2021, I can see what God was showing me about providing basic needs. He said he will provide for your needs according to his riches and glory.

This reminded me of the Maslow Hierarchy Chart of needs. God just reversed it for me so that I could depend on him and not the system surrounding me. Every time I would try to get to my full potential in life, something would happen for it to be snatched away. This is what I experienced in the system when I thought it was my source. It is only a point of contact to do God's Will for my life. So now when I think about voting, for example, I look at the economic pyramid to see which of these areas meets my current needs, improve the system, or benefit the future generation. I can see if what they are saying is sound doctrine and truth to my experience, others, and the current system's data reports.
