The Holy Spirit will teach the way

"Fishing in the Spirit"

We must take the time each day to get to know the Holy Spirit. He is quiet, but powerful in his response. For example, if you have something to say, say it in love and leave it alone. If the Holy Spirit doesn't move in the person you are speaking with then the message is not for them and God will reveal the next person. No need to get upset, just keep moving where the spirits tell you to move. Patience is a virtue and time is of the essence. Give everything over to Christ, align your life with the blessings and watch God move. The Holy Spirit will teach you the same thing that he taught Jesus. Jesus was a person that the Holy Spirit led throughout his life. He was also God in the flesh (1 Timothy 3:16). The Holy Spirit was in him teaching him what only God could show him. He spoke out of his authority. How did Jesus teach his disciples to fish? What do we need to go fishing? We need the right environment. We need a boat. We need bait.

#1 We need an Environment

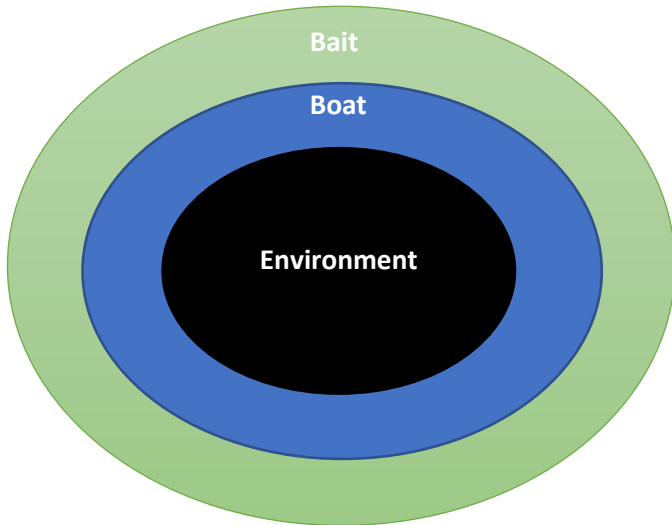

The environment we need to go fishing is the one that God places us in to bloom. We don't know what environment that is, but if you are reading this book you are already in the environment. You just must listen to the Holy Spirit to guide you through. The environment can be your job, your marriage, your school, your home, your business, jail, or any other environment you find yourself void of God's word. Have you identified your environment today?

#2 We need a Boat

The boat is the vehicle God uses to help you transition. The boat can be your marriage, house, job, car, school, the church, trials, tribulations, situations, events, or any platform used to transition you into another dimension so that you can see the hand of God. What is your boat today?

#3 We need Bait

The bait is what God needs from you that you hold onto or cherish more than his word. For me it was fitness. It was my education. It was my passion that didn't elevate him. God can use anything, but you must be willing to give it up or lose it for the sake of the Kingdom. He will give you another bait to open the fish's mouth. God will give it all back if he is at the center of your heart. If something or someone else is occupying his space, then it is hard for him to use it as bait for you to case into the deep so that he can help.

The Holy Spirit grabs your attention in these 3 areas
