Introduction

When I was in the hospital on November 6, 2019 receiving treatment from Clostridioides difficile (also known as C. diff.), I received fresh revelation of confirmation. According to Centers of Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), C. diff is a bacterium that causes diarrhea and inflammation of the colon (CDC, 2019). It was an infection that developed after 2 rounds of antibiotics from a tooth abscess. I explained this process in my book titled, “My Journey to BEvolution LLC”. During my time at the hospital, God was revealing to me that this hospital experience is part of the uprooting process concerning my health mountain which I detail in my book, “My Faith in the Cross through Salvation: The 2 Keys that unlocked the Kingdom of God”. My spirit was bound for so long until I started to question my faith because God did not respond the way I expected, or the way people stated he would respond. I believed I was supposed to see a clean bill of health report from the doctors stating I was in remission of the incurable cancer or that the tumors were gone that I was diagnosed with in 2005. God allowed the thorn of cancer to stay in my side to keep me humbled, but to also elevate my faith to continue to trust him regardless of what was seen from my natural eyes. I also had to keep people out of my ear that didn't believe, and trust was only in medicine. I had to remove all voices because the spirit was hidden, but God revealed it to me through the seven-year narrow path with Christ. There was no way I could hear God in the system I was born into because there were too many distractions and false images.

Chapter 1 – Seeing the Unseen

Once the unseen became seen, I could see the curses breaking because of my belief in Jesus Christ through the power of his blood. God's promise is still yes, and Jesus did not die in vain. He died for a divine purpose for God. Once the curse is visible to the natural eye, it must be uprooted. Uprooting comes from the spirit of God. I had to position myself and get into alignment with God's order and structure for him to permanently uproot the enemy from my life. I have no idea what that looks like, so I must walk by faith and not by sight. This process that I am experiencing reminded me of when Jesus cursed the fig tree in Mark 11:12-25 & Luke 13:6-9 because it appeared to be producing fruit from afar, but up close it had no fruit. Jesus cursed the fig tree. It did not immediately wither and die. It was at least a day because the next day when they arrived at the fig tree it had withered from its root. It wasn't the cancer that was bearing fruit, it was the spirit of Christ dwelling in me cursing it so it would wither and die which dismantled the weapon so I can bear fruit. I had to experience the curse in order to see it and uproot it. The cancer was designed for me to focus on Christ through the storm so once the storm ended, not only did I see the rainbows, but I also saw double rainbows in the sky and around the sun. The Holy Spirit reminded me that God was fulfilling my original prayer from 2006 when I prayed and believed that this mountain of cancer would be uprooted and thrown in the sea. This was my mustard seed prayer by faith (Matthew 17:20).

I made it to the end of the curse to see what God would do in my life to uproot it and never return. This was my threshing floor experience of the cutting out of my life what was not bearing fruit for Christ and the Kingdom of God. This experience also reminded me of Matthew 7:19, “Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire” (NIV). It also reminded me of Matthew 3:10, “The ax is already at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire” (NIV). This year marks 10 years since I completed my first vision board which I painted a tree that was bearing fruit. Ten represents perfect completion. It was 13 years ago when I prayed about the cancer, and it was tooth #13 that had to be uprooted from my mouth because it was infected with the abscess which landed me in the hospital in room #11 which represented judgement. So, the number 13 is very significant in my walk with Christ because Jesus was the 13th person added to his disciples which places the number 13 as a governing authority. No matter what I was going through, Jesus who is the governing authority was present. According to Isaiah 9:6, "For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given; And the government will be upon His shoulder. And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace" (NKJV).

Chapter 2 – God’s Timing Has Dates

It’s also not a coincidence that the days I am writing this book November 13, 2019 is included. The process of uprooting by God has dates associated with the, breakthrough and confirmation of his fullness in glory. As the scripture states, “My eyes have not seen; my ears have not heard, nor has it entered my heart what God has prepared for me, his people and those that love him” (1 Corinthians 2:9 NKJV). I realized that when Jesus spoke in the New Testament some of his words could be seen immediately, but there were times that they could not be seen. Time had to pass in order to see what his words produced. For example, when he told the pharisees, “tare this temple down and rebuild it in 3 days”. He was speaking of a future time. The same with the fig tree. He was speaking of the curse at a future time. He spoke the words and it manifest within 24 hours. The same is true when Jesus spoke of the Kingdom. The Kingdom was for an appointed time which is why the bible needed to be written so we can see the prophesy as it unfolds. God spoke a word to me in 2013 for it to manifest at a future date. I don't know the date, but I know the time is near and to get ready like the 10 virgins in Matthew 25.

Chapter 3 – What I heard in the Spirit

God is showing me how he is going back to uproot from the beginning. Everything that I am dealing with points back to the lie and vengeance belongs to God. Lies must continue to keep organizations from being uprooted. The lie is mixed in with the truth, but once God shakes the tree the truth will be the only thing left to see. God showed me not to become emotional with how liars behave. That is their nature. They are upset because they cannot get an emotional rise that aligns with their deceitful spirit. Watch out for people within the deceitful circle that are the encourager, the charmer, and the watch dog. These are the spirits that are aligned together to pull you into the spirit deception within the practice.

God showed me that he is uprooting demons by my spirit starting sickness. God showed me that everyone that has touched my anointing and did my prophets harm, he will deal with according to his word in Psalms 105:15. Some leaders are about to fall. The finger of God is about to drive them out 1 by 1. Breaking the curse is through belief by faith. God allowed me to see the curse to uproot. He removed me from the curse so that I can see then go back in to uproot. When my emotions were aggravated, I had to pray and seek God's word on the situation and rest in it because I was wrestling against flesh and blood (Ephesians 6:12). Just like God has a body so does Satan. Prayer moves God to act on my behalf. I was sent to specific hospital so when God's glory hits the earth people will know. The day of the turnaround is 11/06, the comeback plan and the reversal. I started seeing this date in 2013, but I didn't know what it meant so every year, I thought it was time. 11/06 could be the time or date or anything God chooses to say its time. My mind sees it as a date, but it could be something completely different. I press forward to see what it will be. I am here by design and not by accident. The people in my life are here and assigned to my life, good or bad, for the purpose of God.

Chapter 4 – Healing comes through the Spirit of God

When I reached up in the cleft while in God's presence, I requested healing, and it is a process that I had to endure. After going to many doctors, and no healing answers, I knew God was present and hovering over me until my time of healing. God will use any means necessary to drive out the enemy. Fighting the right battle is to pray and watch the enemy fall if they do not repent and turn to God. When these people fall, they take innocent lives with them crushing their dreams. This is the image of what man sets up to trap people who are attached to false images. I had to experience the trap to know and understand. Everything they say sounds good, but it's a trap. Test the spirit by God's spirit.

During the times of the hospital visit, my dreams were intense. God showed me that there are spirits in this hospital that haven't found rest. He also showed me that there are protector spirits in the hospital that he identified when I was isolated in my room. The other spirits he showed me were like ravaging wolves. The weapon will form but it will not prosper. God showed me to write out my story in its fullness of how I overcame by the blood of Jesus Christ.

There are good doctors that are in the profession for the passion to authentically help people, and there are some that are only in the profession for money, power, and influence.

When people pray, they open the opportunity for God to come in dwell and lead them to the right practice with the right doctor that will do right by God. When operating by the spirit and not the carnal mind, we can see the spirit of the doctor and know what to pray for because God is good
